Laughter and Medicine.

"A good hearty laugh is better than medicine," remarked the cheery citizen.

"Yes," replied the fearfully calculating person. "But a druggist won't charge you near as much for a little medicine as it is liable to cost to see a genuinely funny show."—Washington Star.

BETROTHAL OF MISS GRIMES ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Frank P. Grimes announces the betrothal of her daughter, Vesta Lucile, to Mr. Cecil Dashwood Giles of New York City. Miss Grimes will return to Paw Paw in June and the wedding will be at the home of her mother the first of September. She will then return to New York City to complete her interior decorating course, having a studio at the same time.

Cecil Dashwood Giles is a resident of New York City and connected with the firm of Loomis Sufferin & Fernald, certified accountants. He is a direct descendant of an old English family and a graduate of Oxford college. His grandfather, Admiral John Giles, served in the capacity of midshipman in Lord Howe's famous action known as "The Glorious First of June 1794." His father, now deceased, retired as a commander in the Royal navy after long years of active service which extended through the Civil war. On his maternal side Mr. Giles is a descendant of the late Rev. Dashwood Lang, M. A. Vicar of Westleigh, North Devon.

Miss Grimes is one of Paw Paw's most estimable young ladies and has the congratulations of her many friends here.

Numerous box parties and dinners are now being given by Mr. Giles' many friends in New York City.

MRS. PHOEBE LONGWELL

Last Thursday, March 30, a gloom was again cast over our little city when the word reached us that Mrs. Phoebe Longwell, widow of J. M. Longwell, had passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Goodale, in Kalamazoo, where she had been for several months on a visit.

Mrs. Longwell before her marriage was Phoebe Ann Hawkins, the daughter of W. R. and Eliza Hawkins. She was born August 10, 1833, at Ithaca, N. Y. Early in life she came with her parents to Michigan, locating in the wilds near what is now the village of Mattawan, where they built a primitive log cabin, and began to hew a farm out of the wilderness.

December 5, 1851 the deceased was united in marriage to James M. Longwell, who preceded her to the Great Beyond September 16, 1907. They were the parents of four children, all of whom are living and mourn the loss of a fond and loving mother: Eva, now Mrs. F. D. Kelley; W. H. Longwell, assistant cashier of National bank, Paw Paw; Fred W., who resides in Schoolcraft, and Daisy, now Mrs. E. L. Goodale of Kalamazoo.

Funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. H. Harvey officiating. Mrs. Longwell was a great lover of flowers and it was on a bed made from these favorites that she made her last resting place. Her life was always filled with kindly deeds and beautiful thoughts for others. She will be greatly missed, not only by her immediate family, but by all who knew her.

SPEAKING EVIL.

When people die and are beyond all earthly troubles and crises, then the rule is, "Speak no evil of the dead." But is it not worse to speak evil of them while they are alive, while the evil word can wound or injure them? Why wait to be kind until it is no use whatever?

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us in our late bereavement; also the pastor for his kind words of sympathy, for singing, and the beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Frank Dodge and Children.

Card of Thanks.

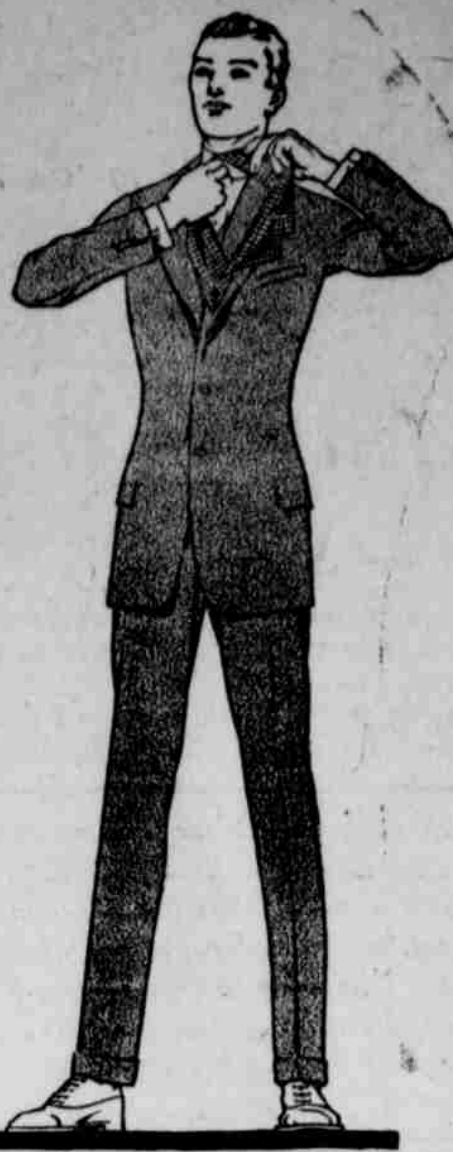

We extend thanks to all friends and neighbors who came and sought to comfort us at the time of our sorrow and bereavement and especially do we appreciate the beautiful flowers sent by the I. O. O. F., the choir of the Baptist church for their music, and those who acted as pall bearers.

R. H. Darling, W. E. Nichols and Family, E. W. Head and Family.

Card of Thanks.

We take this opportunity to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the many acts of sympathy and kindness extended to us at the time of the death and burial of our dear brother.

Mrs. F. E. Mauk, Mrs. W. Gibbs, Mrs. D. J. Mitchelson, E. W. Jennings, E. F. Jennings.

Special Matinee For Ladies Only.
At Idle Hour Theatre
Sat. April 15.
AT 3 P. M.

Begin planning now to attend this matinee. The film shown has one of the cleverest stories produced by The Essanay Film Co. of Chicago. The title is "How Marjorie Won a Career." The story was written by a feature writer for the Essanay Company and part of the film shows an interior of their studio. The part that will interest you most, however, is the actual fitting of

Gossard

Corsets on Living Figures.

You can see just how many different types of figures are transformed into beautiful figures through the correct fitting of a Gossard Corset. Every figure type shown in the film can be correctly fitted at this store.

Complimentary passes will be issued by us and you can obtain as many as you like for yourself and your friends by calling at our Corset Department. The demand for seats will be heavy. Call and get your tickets early.

Ford cars are equipped at the factory with electric lights and electric horn; if you want a starter we will install one for you from $40 to $75 extra, and these are not only guaranteed by the manufacturer but by us as well. In fact they work so perfectly that we say to you to write up any kind of a guarantee you wish and we will sign it. If you want to know how these starters please call up Dr. Hamilton, F. H. McKee, Charlie Hooper of Lawton; H. D. Spicer, Harvey Sherman of Paw Paw, and many others. We have only a few more Ford cars on hand. There is always a shortage in May. Write or call us up to-day for more information. This will not place you under any obligation to buy. We simply want to show you that the Ford has "the goods" on all of them—we make no exceptions.
